A. J. Burton

Do people ever wonder why East High is such a well-managed school? Well, here is one of the biggest reasons. Our principal, Mr. Burton, so efficiently executes even the smallest detail that, as a result, everything runs with clock-like precision.

No little burden is this which rests upon his shoulders, but in his quiet, unassuming way he discharges his duties so faithfully and instills into his students such high ideals that they are proud to have a part.

O. G. Prichard

Our boys are fortunate in having for their adviser Mr. Prichard. His pleasant disposition and wonderful understanding gain for him many friends. Interested in all sports, he schedules the various activities in this field. By his help and guidance, these boys, who have great respect for him, avoid many difficulties. May the influence that he has had over them during their high school days follow them through their entire lives.

Agnes Helmreich

A sunny smile, a kind, pleasant manner, the same to all she meets! This is Miss Helmreich, our girls' adviser. Is it any wonder that the girls of East High School meet with success, when they have such a person as this to help them through their school life? Few schools are so fortunate as to have for their adviser one with such a pleasing personality. Always ready with words of encouragement, she makes many friends, both girls and boys. We hope she will be here to guide many more girls through their years of school activity.

Faculty

The faculty of East High is composed of men and women who have a broad knowledge and experience in the ways of the world as well as of the subjects they teach.

Next to our parents they probably take a greater interest in our general welfare than any other group of people. They realize that while we are but mere students in school today, we will be the leaders of tomorrow, trying to combat the problems of life that may arise. They do practically everything in their power to prepare us for that time.

If it were not for our faculty, it is no doubt that East High would never have attained its high standing in the state, or have accomplished what it has in the past.

Most of the students appreciate them to the utmost, and would do anything possible to make their life much more pleasant and easier about school.

Service

I.

We lay aside our books, and with a sigh
Of sweet remembrance we review the past.
Yes, seniors now, we weep for what is gone,
For carefree, youthful days that cannot last.

II.

Yet we look forward, too, and lift our aim
To wisdom that mere school books cannot give;
To bigger things—to work, success, and fame,
To useful lives that we may nobly live.

III.

The worldly ship is waiting for us now;
To embark on life's vast uncharted sea,
We may sail far; but we shall keep our vow
And ever live to serve humanity.

NAMES MAKE NEWS

While traveling in the country on a MAY day, I SEE an APPELL on a CRABB tree, and nearby is a BIRD picking at a BERRY while the CUR RAN down the road BARKing loudly, (K)ROUSEing YOUNG and old. I HURDed the CARR — like a SHEPPARD his sheep—on a little faster since the road became WID(D)Er and I wanted to gain MORE LAND. Finally I reached two CLAY BROOKS where below the (VAN) DAM REEDs were WAG(NER)ing LEE ward. Here I had to stop to REID directions. After ADDINGTONs of MOORE rocks with which to build our rock garden, I resumed my journey but just then we hit a BUMP. My (McIN)TYRE had blown out so I decided to PARK 'ER. Removing the BOLTZ with a HAMMAR(STEDT), our only tool, I EARNESTly attempted to repair the damage, but since the car was not BRACEd WELL the JACK slipped and the AXEL rested on the ground. My hand, scratched badly, BURNS, but rubbing my CHIN NOW with determination, I MEEKly began my RIZK again, but to my dismay the BOLT broke and I had to WALK-ER run STRAIT to SOMMERVILLE till I was all WARREN out.

Arriving there I witnessed a humorous scene. A lady AND 'ER SON were BECKoning to two "HICKS" as they WEBB their way through a CROWDE(R)d LANE. "HECK," they yell to the GUY who almost hit them. "Have a HART MAN." But HOW'ELL he stop? If he misses them and hits something else he can SUE them. The NOBLE CHAPMAN, RAYMOND, PEARS ON ahead in time to avoid the (SCH)RECK but runs close to a BOOTH where a Chinese COOK, MIKE, SELLS refreshments. He wears a COOLEY and looks very comfortable for such a hot day. Among the refreshments he sells are CLARK and EMMA candy bars made by the JACOBSEN Candy company and two DIPPER(T)s of ice cream from the FLINN and REED dairies for which we must PAYE two NICHOLS.

After purchasing something which would give me the relief from the heat of the day, I walked DOWN(ARD) on the street until I reached the BLACKSMITH's shop. When the SMITH had finished welding the broken part, making all sorts of weird noises, and had polished it with the EMERY wheel, I proceeded to the TAYLOR. This was necesary because I had to have my garments, which had been torn and were GRAY with dust from fixing the blowout, mended. I thanked the WEAVER for his excellent work or probably many more tears would also have resulted.

Meeting one of my friends on the street, I was invited to TERRY with a HOST of my friends in this GARRISON. A PORTER guided me to a BROWN cab which he had called, and I was rapidly transported to my desired destination. After knocking on the DOR ANd turning the knob, I was admitted inside by a BUTLER. Old times became the main topic of the hour. Later, we were served a meal which we ate with the use of RODGERs silverware. I did not enjoy the meal because of the presence of some dishes that I CAN'T RELLish and which also made my friend's son, RUS, SICK. We rushed him to the doctor into whose office we were ushered by a SARGENT. The doctor administered BEYER aspirins and soon he became "WELLER" and commenced to raise "CAIN".

Returning to my friend's house, we noticed the little boy was carrying cookies and other sweets outdoors. On questioning him we were told, "Come on out where RUSS SELLs candy, and buy some." He had started a little shop on the parking where neighbor children could pay for their "nicknacks."

I decided to go on a vacation in JUNE, taking up my beloved vocation as a FISHER. I enjoyed myself thoroughly, BASKIN(S)g in the sun and RHOEINE out into the lake. Using fish worms for BATES, I MARYly caught many BASS fish. After a stay of about a week I took an excursion on my return trip. I rode in a BUS BY the way of Chicago, whose FERR IS quite a sum. The journey was DUN LAPping over a time of several days.

This semester thirty-three new members were initiated into the East High chapter of the National Honor Society.

Character, scholarship, leadership, and service are the fundamentals upon which election is based. A student must have made an outstanding record in one of these fields. Herbert Reid served as president; Louise Webb, vice-president; Lois Hartman, secretary; and Paul Osmundson, treasurer. Miss Scott acted as adviser.

A member of the staff is appointed to take charge of the feature pages. Pictures may be taken especially for the page or collected by the staff members.

This semester the senior department has worked especially hard because of the large number of seniors.

SCROLL

Under the direction of Margaret McAnaa, editor-in-chief, the Scroll staff has endeavored during the past semester to bring out more interesting papers and to cover more fully the school activities.

Advertising has been carried for the first time this semester. The sale of advertising by a group of Journalism 2 pupils has been successfully carried on.

Although the club was dismissed three times for the music contest, it continues to progress under the leadership of Bob Lindquist, president; Annette Levine, vice-president; Marguerite Sargent, secretary; Anita Smith, treasurer; and Mr. Tallman, adviser. One must possess some musical ability to be eligible for membership in this club. Some members of the club placed in the music contest held this spring.

Cap and Dagger, a dramatic club for girls, is under the leadership of Martha Jane Backman, president; Elizabeth Sweeney, vice-president; Marie Bergren, secretary; and Marguerite Sternberg, treasurer. Before a girl can be a member of this club she must show her dramatic ability in public tryouts.

The purpose of the society is to study types of drama, to produce one-act plays for criticism, and to promote an interest in school dramatics.

The meetings, which are planned by the vice-president, are always very interesting. A picnic is held in the spring of the year.

MODERNISTIC

With Althea Gray as their president; Genevieve Deaton, vice-president; Mildred Johnson, secretary; and Miss Mitchell, adviser, the Modernistic club is endeavoring to gain knowledge that adds to charm of personality and that promotes mutual social development. The club is making a definite study of etiquette. "Charm" was discussed by Miss Woodman at one meeting. Mrs. Bond, former instructor at the Y. W. C. A., talked on "Just being Ourselves," at the club tea held April 16.

Members of the club presented an interesting skit on how Mrs. Emily Post prepares her daily column for the paper. A dramatization of the correct methods of introductions was featured.

PHILATALIN

Under the leadership of Gretchen Smith, president; Mary Sommerville, vice-president; Virginia Tennihill, secretary; and Gretchen Geissinger, treasurer, the Philatalin club has taken up the study of plantations and other points of interest in the south. Very interesting programs on these subjects have been enjoyed by the members of the club during the semester. At two of their meetings the members had a different type of entertainment. In February a party was held in honor of St. Valentine's Day at their regular meeting, and in March a St. Patrick's Day banquet was enjoyed. This semester the Philatalin club has been under the guidance of Miss Grace McEniry.

The social function of the year is the Mother and Daughter Tea given in the spring. This semester new pins were introduced into the club and they are creating quite a stir among the girls.

Inez Goughnour, president; Gwendolyn Harris, vice-president; Louise Simpson, secretary; and Barbara Bitting, treasurer, are the officers of the club. Miss Fickel is the adviser.

PURPLE MASK

Chili suppers have been in good order with members of the Purple Mask the past semester. The most important work of the semester, however, was the rewriting of the constitution of the organization.

Purple Mask is a dramatic club for the boys of East high. Its purpose has been to stimulate interest in modern drama among the boys, and to offer a channel for constructive work to those seriously interested in this project.

Lee Brownlee has served as president of the club this semester; George Heggen was vice-president; Jimmy Gay, secretary; and Matt Kruzick, treasurer. Miss Woodman and Mr. Stratton are club advisers.

SHAKESPEAREAN

Modern drama and original composition have been discussed in the meetings of the Shakespearean club for the past semester. Reviews of drama currently being presented in Des Moines, and biographies of prominent actors and actresses of today were given by various members of the club. One meeting was devoted to the reading of original compositions by several members.

The works of Shakespeare were also a source of material. The club was originally designed for the purpose of studying these plays.

Officers the past semester were: Margaret Pexton, president; Louise Simpson, vice-president and program chairman; and Elizabeth Sweeney, secretary. Miss Gabriel and Miss McBride are advisers.

SHORTHAND SPEED

The Shorthand Speed Society, the members of which are all advanced shorthand students, has for its officers this semester Lois Bass, president; Helen Sheppard, vice-president; Emma Belvel, secretary; Maxine Wosky, treasurer; Johnny Clarkson, sergeant-at-arms; and Louise McFadden, historian. The club enjoyed some interesting programs which included field trips to The Register and Tribune, Meredith Publishing Company, and the Great Western Insurance Company. The purpose of the Shorthand Speed Society is to promote interest in shorthand and general secretarial work, and to acquaint the students with the procedure and routine of office practice. The club advisers are Miss Quick and Mrs. Pendy.

The officers, with the help of Miss Patterson, have planned some interesting programs this semester. These programs included the Roman Banquet and a picnic at which the initiation was held. The members of the club enjoyed also a Roman style show, in which the different types of clothing which were worn by the Romans were displayed.

The purpose of the club is to give the members further knowledge of Latin and of the Roman people, their customs, and various phases of Roman life.

ZETAGATHEAN

Under the leadership of Naomi Johnson, president; Marguerite Sternberg, vice-president; Marian Sheldon, secretary; Lois Petersen, treasurer; and Miss Snyder, adviser, the Zetagathean society is endeavoring to make girls better acquainted with literature.

At every meeting something of literary value is given for the members. Miss Cummings gave a review of "The Barrets of Wimpole Street," at one meeting. Also a review of the school spring play by one of the cast was given for the club.

A banquet which was centered around farm life and at which the guests ate by kerosene lamp light, and picnic were the social events of the semester.

Besides non-decision debates with Newton and Ames, the team took part in the city series debates and won second place in spite of having begun preparation only a week before.

Carol, Jim, and Julian also entered the debates held at Drake.

Elizabeth Sweeney and Carol Wildey. the extemporaneous speakers, met with two representatives from each of the other high schools last fall and gave five minute talks on subjects which they had prepared beforehand.

SPRING PLAY

"Quality Street," one of Sir James M. Barrie's most charming comedies, was presented May 11 and 12, under the direction of Miss Woodman.

When the man she loves enlists in the Napoleonic wars without proposing marriage, Phoebe Throssel, with her sister, Susan, is financially forced to open a school. Ten years later Valentine returns, loving the old Phoebe, but unable to see her as the schoolmistress.

Miss Macy and the art department cooperated in the designing of sets and costumes. Mr. Hostetter was in charge of the stage.

Betty Jones was assistant to the director.

LIBRARY ASSISTANTS

To be a librarian a girl must have satisfactory grades and a good character. She must know how to file the books and to use the card catalog.

The library consists of three parts, the reserve desk, in which books that are frequently asked for are kept; the counter to which pupils in the study hall may go; and the circulation desk where all books may be taken out.

Once a week the girls take all the books off the shelves and dust them. Books to be checked in or out are taken care of by the librarians.

JANUARY EXTRAVAGANZA

The January Extravaganza this year featured the crowning of Virginia Priebe and Lloyd Leopold, the king and queen of the January class, by the senior board members amidst a beautiful wintery scene.

Mr. Tallman, who directed the entertainment was also master of ceremonies.

BOYS' QUARTET

BOYS' QUARTET

The East High Boys' Quartet has been a group of which we could be proud, because they have always given splendid showing where they have gone, and they also won a rating of "Superior" in the District Music Contest. The quartet, composed of Robert Lindquist, Max Kreutz, Robert Aitken, and Theodore Fligstein, accompanied by Mrs. Grammess of Wilson Junior High, have sung for many entertainments, luncheons, and clubs, such as Younkers Tea Room and P. T. A's. Because this work is extra curricular, they have spent much time outside for practice and the results are excellent.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

Because our Boys' Glee Club has a particularly fine balance of voices, plus a group of well-trained singers, it was rated "Superior" in the city music contest this semester, which gave the members the chance of going to the state music contest held at Iowa City. Last year they received the highest rating in the state.

The Club, with a membership of thirty-nine, meets with Mr. Tallman three days a week, and every boy tries to put forth his best effort to really learn to have excellent intonation and a better understanding and interpretation of the music that he sings.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

This is the first Girls' Glee Club of East High School that has been eligible for the finals in state competition for some time. Because only a small fraction of the six hundred twenty-nine people enrolled for music in our school, which is the largest enrollment in the city, have the privilege of going to Iowa City for the contest for only thirty-eight of the fifty-six girls enrolled in the Glee Club are to go, competition is rather keen.

A requirement for the membership in the Girls' Glee Club is to have had at least one semester's work in a preliminary chorus.

MIXED CHORUS

The East High Mixed Chorus was composed almost entirely of new members in the fall term, because only ten were left after the graduation in June. Nevertheless, through their work and Mr. Tallman's, they built themselves up throughout the year to one of the best choruses of East High. The A Cappella Choir received a "Superior" rating in the city contest and went to Iowa City during the early part of May for state Competition there.

The sixty-eight members of the chorus have worked hard to improve their singing and raise their rating.

BAND

The band, under the leadership of Mr. Tallman, has made a very fine showing during the past year, particularly in its work during the football season, at the football games and pep assemblies, and at basketball games. There has been a great advancement in class work as well as in the individual ability of each player, and six of its members competed in the city music contest. Everyone of the eighty-six members enrolled in the band is certified to compete in the National Band Contest held in Des Moines. This is the first time the East High Band has been entered in the national event.

ORCHESTRA

Because the members of our orchestra have worked very hard in order to improve themeselves so they could make a good showing in the city music contest, they received an "Excellent" rating. The orchestra, under the capable direction of Mr. Tallman, has appeared many times before the public in such features as school plays, entertainments, and special concerts. There has been a good attitude towards improvement in individual ability and much progress has been shown in this respect. Next year's orchestra should be an especially fine and experienced group. should be an especially fine and experienced group.

SPRING

JANITORS

JANITORS

East High school employs a staff of six janitors, one matron, three firemen, and a custodian. Each of the six janitors work eight hours a day. Each floor, and the annex are in charge of a janitor, and one day man is employed to do miscellaneous work. Our custodian, Mr. T. H. Hall, has the supervision of everything pertaining to the building and grounds, such as the boiler rooms and engines. We have our own power and light plant and make our own electricity for the building.

Besides her regular duties, our matron, Mrs. Simpson, assists in Miss Helmreich's room and the nurse's office.

CAFETERIA LADIES

Perhaps four of the most important persons in East High are the ladies who have charge of our cafeteria. Mrs. Wiggenjost plans the menus, and with the help of her three assistants, Mrs. Martin, Mrs. Meline, and Mrs. Engleman, prepares and serves the lunches for the students and teachers. These ladies endeavor to serve everyone possible and give very efficient service. Mrs. Wiggenjost has been working in the cafeteria for eleven years, while Mrs. Martin has been here seven years. Mrs. Meline and Mrs. Engleman have been here four and three years, respectively.

HI Y

The Hi Y club, which meets every Tuesday evening at the Y. M. C. A. under the direction of Leon Smith, has a larger membership this semester than at any other time in the history of the organization.

The boys, whose officers are Bob Brackenbury, president; Bob Schaefer, vice-president; George Heggen, secretary; and Howard Johnson, treasurer, always have good times at their meetings. An annual tie swap, a hobo hike, a surprise meeting, interesting speakers, and movies are a part of the varied program which draws the boys closer together in the spirit of loyalty and cooperation.

Any boy willing to maintain the standards of Christian living is eligible.

BRUSH AND PALETTE

The Brush and Palette, whose members number twenty, is one of the youngest clubs in the school. Its purpose is to promote interest in art to the members, who are eligible after one semester of art work.

Every term a project is undertaken by a member. Some of the more interesting ones are the making of tooled leather goods, carving, constructing, and painting lampshades. During the last semester a field trip was taken to the city library to view the art guild exhibition.

The art club is directed by Blanche Mikesell, president; Ruth Warren, vice-president; Leone Cain, secretary-treasurer; and Miss Macy, adviser.

MUSIC CONTEST

East High was quite well represented at the Music Contest which was held in Iowa City on May 3 and 5. Among those representing our school are the mixed chorus, girls' glee club, boys' glee club, boys' small vocal group, and the baritone vocal solo. Of these groups only two, Theodore Fligstein, the baritone soloist, who received a rating of "excellent," and the boys' quartette which was rated "superior," had to go to the district contest for competition. The band will be entered for the first time in the National Band Contest which is going to be held in Des Moines.

DIE DEUTSCHE GESELLESHAFT

Although German is no longer a part of the school curriculum, the German club has endeavored to keep alive an interest in the subject.

Under the leadership of Mary Shaw, president; Harriet Foster, vice-president; Esther Wherle, secretary; and Pauline Weissinger, treasurer, the club has studied the manners and customs of Germany. Several speakers have given the club their impressions of the country. Miss Wickware, sponsor, has also told the members something concerning her visits there.

An interesting feature of the meetings is the social hour at which coffee and coffee cake are served.

ALUMNI PLAY

"The Alumni Stage Revue of 1934" was presented by East High alumni April 12 and 15.

Some of those in leading roles were Melford Boyd, Marie Vestre, Don Green, Ardis Olson, Julian Lutz, Yvonne Scheffer, Roland Chinn, Hester DeMoss, Vermont Deskin, and Bob McGrew. Denny Littlewood and Don Haptonstahl, acting as two detectives, provided the comedy.

The theme of the entertainment centered around the events of a house party. The detectives were called to guard the expensive diamond bracelet of one of the guests. The bracelet, thought to have been stolen, was finally found by the maid, Helen Aschim, in a punch bowl.

MAY FETE

The May Festival, an annual event at East High school, took place on the lawn in front of the school building on Friday, May 18. The main theme carried out was that of having the Spirit of Spring and her attendants drive King Winter from the place where he had reigned supreme for many months.

Approximately fifty-three dancers, twenty-two girl tumblers, and twenty boy tumblers together with the band took part in this annual fete. The crowning of the May Queen took place and honor was paid to the Cardinal. The festival this year was under the direction of Miss Spencer and Miss Jordan.

CHARACTER TRAITS

This semester the Citizenship Committee of the Student Council has conducted a drive to improve the character of the East High students. Each home room was asked to submit a list of five qualities of good character. From the thirty-eight qualities turned in the committee chose the following: honesty, courtesy, dependability, loyalty, and initiative. Each week the home rooms were asked to submit a narrative, true or imaginary, which would illustrate the advantages of the particular quality chosen for that week's discussion. These narratives were approximately two hundred words in length and pertained to school life. The five best stories were selected and published.

ANNIVERSARY DAY

On May 19, 1912 a group of pupils, carrying the school's belongings, marched from the old building to the new East High School building. The new building was the result of the pupil's, teacher's and patron's efforts which extended over a period of three years.

Every year on May 17, the students of East High celebrate Anniversary Day. It is customary for the assembly to be held on the lawn in front of the building and for two speakers, one speaking for the seniors and one for the underclassmen, to speak on the subjects, Reflections and Anticipations.

This year, Elizabeth Sweeney represented the seniors and Carol Wildey the underclass men.

SERVICE GIRLS

Each semester Miss Helmreich selects the service girls for positions in the service room, the nurse's office, the main office, and the vice principal's office.

A service girl takes care of all telephone calls and keeps a record of them, does all the necessary filing, acts as a messenger, checks out monitor pins, and records absences.

A girl to gain the position of a service girl must have satisfactory scholarship, and a good character.

The experience gained by being a service girl is very valuable to the girl during her remaining year in high school and during her life after graduation.

GIRL RESERVES

The members of the Girl Reserves agree that the outstanding event of the year was the camping expedition at the Y camp May 18, 19, and 20. The girls meet every other Wednesday at the Y. W. C. A. Dances are held every other Friday night at the Y. W. C. A.

A ceremonial to initiate new members into the organization was held April 22.

A breakfast planned for the girls the last of May and a pot luck supper added to the enjoyment of the activities.

The officers of the organization were Naomi Johnson, president; Polly Lincoln, vice-president; Virginia Webster, secretary; and Betty Schwartz, treasurer. Mrs. Pond is the supervisor.

VITAPHONE

A motion picture machine was purchased March 14 after a vote which was taken proved that the students were interested in a vitaphone. By buying the machine before March 15 three hundred dollars was saved. $500 from the student fund was used to purchase the vitaphone and the school is allowed seventeen months in which to complete the payments.

Fifty cent tickets, which will entitle the holder to see ten movies in the evening, will be sold to increase the student funds. Free noon movies will also be shown.

HIGH SCHOOL SALES DAY

The second annual Des Moines High School Sales Day was observed by thirteen leading Des Moines business establishments May 11.

The students participating in the various businesses acted in many capacities, as executives, as salespeople, and as reporters. It meant not only a day of new experiences, but also a day of practical training within the organizations of large and progressive local institutions. The students were chosen from the commercial departments of the four high schools on recommendation of their teachers. Various students from each high school were chosen to act as store executives. Roger Frederickson was "president for a day" at Younkers.

The comments from store officials were complimentary to the capability of the high school students.

OUR COACHES

H. E. AUGUSTINE

Football, basketball, track and mathematics are the subjects taught by "Silent" Mike Augustine. He is in his ninth year at East High and is as good a coach as we have ever had. His fine coaching is at least partly a result of his being one of the best athletes in the middle west while in Grinnell.

D. Q. WILLIAMS

Muscle builder and a good example of the art is "Duke" Williams, teacher of physical education at East High. He coaches tennis and manages the intramural sports as well as his teaching. He has been here for 11 years, and previous to that he was coach of basketball and wrestling at Boone.

K. T. OLSEN

Although he is small in stature, the new woodshop instructor and wrestling coach, Mr. K. T. Olsen, proves too great a grappler for any member of his team. Mr. Olsen is completing his first year at East High and has sent out a good team of wrestlers. Next semester, monograms will be given in wrestling.

HAROLD MANN

Coach Mann is a jack-of-all trades in East High as his wide knowledge makes him capable of teaching almost any subject he is asked to. Although he is younger than the average high school teacher he knows his teams and can never yet be accused of not giving good material a good chance.

A. G. HOSTETTER

Our golf coach is a small man but a great obstacle if one's object is to "run over" him. His golf teams are always perfectly coached before the game and his spirit of fair play is shown in all his deeds. East High can say she has one of the best when it comes to golf coaches.

A. Y. RUSSELL

"Scotty" Russell is small but mighty. He proved this when he recovered after falling 70 feet from a tower. Scotty sailed the salty brine for 7 years to thoroughly recover and now coaches swimming here at East High with the greatest of skill and perfection which has accounted for many winning teams.

Swimming Team

Just imagine yourself as a fancy diver on the board in our pool in the gym, doing a back dive or a forward flip. Imagine it if you can, or if you don't care to, or presume yourself not acrobatic enough, imagine yourself as a 220-yard dash man, seconds are precious, your opponent is only five feet ahead or may be only two or three strokes. You are about out of breath, your lungs are bursting for air, your muscles protest, and yet you just have to win this race. If you win, it may mean enough points to win a letter, if you lose, well, no letter. If you can imagine all these things you can very nearly contemplate the life of an East High Splasher. Swimming has long been a popular sport in East High. At the start of the season in November many boys turn out to enjoy the coolness of the briny depths of our pool.

The boys line up, and a few at a time, present their wares as a free-styler, a breast stroker, a back stroker or a diver. As the ranks are thinned by hard competition some members of the team begin to stand out above all the rest, till at last all but the fittest have been thrown off and the team begins to take shape. After the number is trimmed down to the correct amount for a well balanced team, there begins a series of grueling practices in which the boys begin to form into a high strung, smooth running machine. At practice, once a week, time trials are held in which swimmers try to equal or break marks that are set before them. When it comes time for a meet the fellows are in good shape, for the requirements for a good swimmer are the same as those for any other sport. The boys keep themselves free of dissipation of any sort, whether it be smoking, drinking, or late hours.

While the boys out for swimming do not work as long after school as the football, basketball, and track teams, they work quite as hard and are deserving of just as much credit and consideration. They work hard for a word of praise from "Scotty" Russell, East High's notable swimming instructor, who is, among other things, a member of the Royal Scottish Life Guards.

The team that represented East High this year won one meet from North and lost one to the Polar Bears; won two encounters with the Railsplitters; and lost both to the strong Roughrider team which won first place in the city meet this year. Our splashers won second place in the finals which were held at Lincoln.

Track

The track team, coached by "Mike" Augustine, was supported by about fifty members. Among these, there were three lettermen, Guy, Redrick, and Hohl, all seasoned trackmen. Rederick, in spite of lots of competition, managed to place fourth in the high jump at the state indoor meet, posting East's only score at the meet.

Though their showing was not of the best at the state indoor meet, East's trackmen showed what they could do by outmatching Valley Junction's track squad 81 to 21. Practically all of the events were taken by East, and most of the places were firsts while in a number of events the first three places were taken by East.

In the field events East won all first positions with the exception of the javelin hurling contest in which second place was won by Burr Hohl.

The shot putting event was won by Rederick with Booth second, while Hohl and Nelson took first and second places in the discus throw. All of the first three places were won by East in the broad jump, featuring Griffith, Hohl, and Trimble in their respective positions. The pole vaulting contest also netted East three positions; it was won by Sargent, with Phoenix placing second and Simpson third.

All firsts were taken by East in the following contest also. In the mile run Notes came in first while Silver nosed out a third position. The hundred yard dash was won by Redrick with Barlow in third place, and the 120-yard high hurdles were taken by Munsel, Fry, and Simpson in first, second, and third places. Guy won the 440-yard dash and Heifner came in third, the 120-yard low hurdles were taken by Hawes and Munsel for a first and second place, and the 220-yard dash was a victory for Parker. Daugherty won the 880-yard dash, with Stevens second, and Reese third.

The 880-yard relay was just another victory for East, with Redrick the individual high scorer, gaining 15 points exclusive of the 880-yard relay team.

Twenty points are given for representing the school in a first team meet and 10 points for representing in a second team meet. Ten points are given for each point won in a first team meet and 5 points for each point won in a second team meet. Up to 80 points are given for being regular at practice and staying out all season. Only 100 points may be carried over.

Basketball

East started off the season with a bang, but it so happened they were on the wrong end of the bang. The well known city of Newton exhibited some of their home-town talent by washing East High's quintet out 19 to 16. The game was going right for old Lee Township at the half as the score of 9 to 6 in her favor indicated. Redrick of East did the most individually during the game for his dear East High by scoring 7 points, but with no avail because the washing machine five ran all ever our boys in the second half and the game ended with East under the washer 19 to 16.

When East met Newton again after losing some of her good men by graduation in January, she met a similar fate of being beaten by 3 points, 23 to 20. The boys from the washing machine town just seemed to insist upon soaking East like a dirty sock. At the half the score was 10 to 7 in favor of Newton. Cotton seemed distressed for his mother school, so he added in 7 scores to the Newton five's 3 in the third quarter but in the final period Newton put the game on ice.

—o—

East High next met Perry's team and had their revenge by defeating the boys from the small town by a good margin. Guy, Redrick, Cotton, and Brackenbury all performed nicely; and the other boys who got in the game fitted in like cogs in the old East High machine which once more promised to click before the season ended.

—o—

When East High confronted those Perry boys again in the second round of the season, they showed no loss of skill by the graduates' departure. Perry went down to the count of 38 to 17 and Brackenbury carried off the scoring honors for East high with 11 points. At the half the score was 23 to 5 with the substitutes' hearts beating rag time at the hopes of geting to play, thanks to the first team's excellent work. Nevertheless, this game was no hand-out as Perry was not the kind of team that says quit when the others have the lead. They were fine losers and proved that little towns can "take it" better than some of the larger ones.

East proved their superiority to the North High crew again after the January graduation losses, although it was not by an extremely large margin. Johnny Cotton carried off the scoring honors with nine points. The score was 16 to 14 when the gun sounded. Another case where one shot won a game, but, as long as East is on top, it's O. K. by us.

—o—

In their next game, East High again loomed as the dark horse of the tournament by skinning five well trained polar bears. The East High quintet was clicking like a fifty dollar clock, and at the half they had a good portion of polar bear under control. Although the scoring was not high for any individual, Preston Evans carried off the honors in scoring by getting five points. But Johnny Cotton was the hero of the match by his late scores which won the game for East.

—o—

When this fighting East High crew tackled Grinnell in the first round of the tournament, they must have had a case of S. H. (swell head). The Grinnell team fixed this little attack with the medicine of beating East 23 to 14. The Grinnell team seemed to be the best team East High had run against up to that time, and their fast passing as well as perfect shooting netted them the big part of the score.

The second game with Grinnell was not so disappointing as the first, but contrary to this, it was one of the most exciting games in the season. Grinnell rushed East off her feet at first for a small lead and held this until the last minute. They had a 1 point lead over East with 45 seconds to play when Brewer was sent in. He received a pass from Johnny Cotton and sank it from the corner. The gun sounded and East was on top 17 to 16. It was some game and Brewer led the scoring with 6 points.

Next came Indianola, that quiet, peace loving, little town in the suburbs, but they produced a team which succeeded in bringing home the bacon which seemed to be sliced off Lee Township's crew. At the half the gym was in an uproar as the half the gym was in an uproar as Indianola had but a 1 point lead over East. It was this lead which they nursed all through the game to beat East.

In the return game with the Indianola boys East High showed a terrible falling off in skill. At the half East was on the wrong side of an 8 to 3 score and couldn't seem to get back up.

—o—

In the Lincoln-East game many exciting incidents came to pass but best of all was when Lawrence Redrick shot the basket for the wrong team. He will not confess whether it was accidental or whether the sight of that favorite girl friend in the crowd made him dizzy. Nevertheless, this little incident did not greatly affect the results of the game, for the Railsplitters won by a margin of 10 points. The number 8 seemed to predominate in this game as the score at the half was 18 to 8; the final score was 28 to 18; and Brackenbury excelled in scoring by making 8 points.

—o—

In the second game with Lincoln, East was in fine shape. In the first half East had 7 points lead, and she nursed this nice-sized margin to the final gun, winning by a score of 23 to 16. This game left a doubt in the minds of some as to the better team as each had beaten once. This was settled in East's favor when the two met again in the sectional tournament.

—o—

In the Roosevelt-East game, East got just what she anticipated, a good beating. In all high school sports Roosevelt probably ranks highest in basketball. Those Roughriders gave East all they had and won 34 to 18 with McMichael leading the scoring.

—o—

In the second game with the Roughriders East was given another rough-shod beating. The Roosevelt boys quadrupled the score made by East and beat 37 to 9. Redrick put down 4 points for East to take scoring honors on our side while Mr. McMichael was held to 7 points by Guy of East. This gave Roosevelt the city title. East was second, Lincoln third, and North last.

—o—

To finish off the season, East beat Valley for the second time in the season. The first meeting saw Valley downed 44 to 23 by the East quintet, and in the second game they beat them 21 to 12.

Boys' Golf

A good competitive team to belong to, if one is good enough, is the East High Golf team. This team coached by the woodworking instructor, Mr. A. G. Hostetter, and consists of eight members called player number one to eight. Candidates for this team are Bill Bergren, Bob Jeffress, Ed Bird, Matt Kruzick, Virgil Bird, Bob Haptonstahl, Leon Clemons, Marvin Cox, Fred Jackson, Bill Palmer, and Lawrence Tassin. Several lettermen form the nucleus of this team; among them are Bill Bergren, Ed Bird, and Bob Jeffress.

Boys' Tennis

Another of East High's popular sports is tennis. This is a strenuous game, played by hard working fellows and coached by the prince of all good fellows, "Duke" Williams. "Duke" has time to devote to this game as well as all of his other activities, such as tumbling, wrestling, and last but not least his job as gym instructor. Likely members that will represent East High this year are Max Steinway, John Cotton, Bob Schaefer, Chandler Olson, Chris Porter , Jimmy Ziton, Howard Krouse, and Max Wheeler. In tennis as in golf there are eight players.

Second Team Basketball

When a fellow turns out for basketball, he has high hopes of receiving a position on the first team. If he cannot make the first team through his ability or if he has some little physical handicap, which eliminates him from first team play, he may be able to play with the second team. A player receiving a position on the second team has a good chance of becoming a first team man after mid-year graduation. For participation in a second team game a player receives half the number of points he would receive for the first team play. A good second team provides good competition for the first team in practice. The second team is the shock troop division of all athletics and is a credit to the school.

Cheer Leaders

A good team of cheer leaders can do much to make the spirit of rivalry between two schools a friendly instead of an unfriendly one. To be a good team the members must be especially adapted to that type of exhibition work. To win a monogram a cheer leader must earn 400 points, 300 points in the fall semester, when the most work is done, and 100 points in the spring semester. Leaders are chosen by a series of try-outs conducted by Mr. Burton, Mr. Prichard, and Miss Helmreich. Any boy may try out.

———o———

Girls' Swimming

Swimming is one of the most popular sports among the girls. There are a number of enthusiasts who are striving to pass their life saving tests. Among them are Betty Davis, Dorothy McGlothlen, Ardis Mosebach, Margaret Langland, Phyllis Grant, Lenore Ervin, Doris Lee, Jean Chapman, Isabel Goodwin, Barbara Nichols, and Josephine Barker.

Girls' Tennis and Golf

A great many girls came out this spring to try to earn a place on the girls' tennis team. They could not all make the team, but for each night's practice one point was given toward a monogram.

Several girls were interested in golf, and were out working to earn points in this sport. The only veteran of last year's team was Julia Sullivan. The others were busy learning the game in hopes of winning a place on the team.

BOYS' TUMBLING TEAM

A gang of very active fellows that bring to East High honor, and a good reputation is that bunch called the tumbling team. This team is coached by the gym instructor "Duke" Williams, tumbling being a by-product of his gym work. These fellows practice several nights a week to be in good condition for exhibitions. No monogram is awarded to the boys for participating in this sport. The only credit is the picture of the team in the Quill and after each member's name when he graduates is a record of how long he belonged. Places where exhibitions were given are the Easton Community Center, West Junior High and American Legion Hall.

GIRLS' TUMBLING TEAM

The girls on the tumbling team have had a fine season in spite of a few spills now and then. They gave a demonstration at West High March 29 with the boys' tumbling team. There were about twenty-two girls who participated in this performance.

G. A. A.

The past semester the officers of the Girls' Athletic Association were Naomi Meek, president; Ardis Mosebach, vice-president; Dorothy McGlothlen, secretary; Irene Cowen, treasurer; and Althea Gray, publicity secretary.

G. A. A. is not a regular school club, but all girls are automatically members and are entitled to enter into the activities of the association. Some of the purposes of the club, which are stated in the point system, are as follows:

1. To provide an added aid in stimulating all girls to a well-rounded, balanced program of living from the standpoint of regular physical activity.

2. To recognize special effort and accomplishment in the way of service, leadership, and physical achievement so that they will be more meaningful in the lives of the girls.

3. To increase participation in extra-class activities as a meand t o w a r d accomplishing the other purposes named.

4. To increase the satisfaction of girls in the various physical activities by providing some tangible form of recognition closely related to these activities.

HELEN SPENCER

Under the new point system, girls may earn points by participation in organized extra-class activities, inter-school competition, skill achievements, habitual body carriage; by participating in "outing" activities, such as hiking, all day outing, or camp trips, overnight or week-end camp trips where campers prepare their own meals, canoeing trips of a day or more, horseback riding, or any similar sports or outings; by service, leadership, personal standards, and conduct.

Althea Gray and Mildred Johnson won the deck tennis tournament that was held last year, and this semester they challenged all comers who wished to try to win this championship. They proved their merit by beating Delsey Friend and Elizabeth Fahnestock in the final round to retain the crown.

One of the ways in which to earn G. A. A. points is to be a squad leader. The following girls were squad leaders during the past semester: in the Wednesday and Friday classes—period I—Doris Lynn and Anna Tuinstra;—period II—Amy Johnson and Doris Pointer; period III—Dorothy Reynolds and Elizabeth Randolph; period IV — Mary Mogolov and Annabelle Couch; period V—Eileen Pratt and Edna Plum. Those in the Tuesday classes were: perior . I—Orpha Exline and Violette Fleming; period II—Virginia Butcher and Mona Brown; period IV — Ruth Ginsberg and Dorothy McGlothlen; period V—Betty Rogers and Lillian Maxwell. Leaders in the Monday classes were: period I—Rachel Payne and Aline Nesbitt; period II—Lois Petersen and Mildred Johnson; p e r i o d III—Viola Ronk and Vivian Nelson; period V—Theda Allen and Eloise Percy.

Another exciting tournament in which many girls participated was the shuffleboard tournament. Nearly every game which was played was so close that the outcome was in doubt until the very last. This was especially true in the final game between the team composed of Margaret Williamson and Anna Tuinstra and that made up of Doris Pointer and Kathryn McClanahan. Margaret and Anna finally won by a margin of two points. Doris and Kathryn were the consolation winners.

The pupils of East High were given a great privilege on April 11 when Commodore Longfellow, the head of the life-saving department of the United States, spoke before the fifth period gym and swimming classes and others interested in hearing him. Mr. Longfellow has been called the "Grand Old Man of Life-Saving," because he is the man who originated this most useful institution. In his talk his cry was to make people "more water wise" or to "make America more waterproof."

Miss Marion Lybbert now types 110 words a minute for 15 minutes. She will enter the International Typewriting Contest to be held in Chicago in June.

The A. I. B. is a school for champions, valedictorians, honor graduates, and students with an ambition to succeed.

A. I. B. instruction includes training in personality development and social intelligence as well as expert technical training.

A youth began his career in a coal mine, and one of his first jobs was to drive a pony. He got along very well until he came to a place where the roof was much too low to permit the pony to pass. Consequently he took a pick and started to hack away at the roof.

A foreman came quickly on the scene and asked what he was doing. The lad explained that he was making a way for the pony to pass.

"That's a very dangerous thing to do," said the foreman. "You might have had the whole roof down. What you should do is to cut away the floor."

"D'ye think I'm a fool?" retorted the lad. "It's the pony's head that won't go through."

"Oh, Bob," shouted the wife to her husband, "how do you expect to drive a nail in the wall with that toothbrush? For goodness sake, use your head."
